

Marc E. Montalbine

Montalbine@dhlaw.de

Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings
International Business Transactions
Safeguard Relief from Import Competition

Education:

Universität des
Saarlandes,
Europa-Institut

University of Virginia
Law School
J.D.

Old Dominion University
B.S. (Accounting)

Bar Admissions:

Virginia

Bar Memberships:

U.S. Supreme Court

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

U.S. Court of International Trade

U.S. District Court,
Eastern District of
Virginia

U.S. Bankruptcy Court,
Eastern District of Virginia

U.S. Court of Federal Claims

Marc Montalbine heads deKieffer & Horgan's European office. He advises European companies exporting to the United States on a range of legal matters, including antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings, commercial agreements, business entity formation, and taxation and transfer pricing.

From 1991 to 1994, Mr. Montalbine served as a trial attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, representing the United States government in international trade cases brought before the U.S. Court of International Trade and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Mr. Montalbine is a 1986 graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law. In 1995, he completed a special course of studies in European Union Law at the University of Saarland.

Mr. Montalbine is admitted to the practice of law in Virginia and is also a Certified Public Accountant.

deKieffer & Horgan prepared the materials on this web site for informational purposes. The transmission and display of the information contained at, or accessed through, this web site is not intended to create, and receipt or viewing of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship. Since we are not providing legal advice through this web site, you should not act upon any information you might receive from it without seeking professional counsel. The materials on this web site are intended, but not guaranteed, to reflect current legal developments and the current state of the law. We do not, however, represent, warrant, or guarantee they will be complete, accurate, or up to date when you view them.